Success is a journey,
a journey up a very steep mountain.
At its base, preparation.
First comes training;
Second, knowledge of the peak;
Third, planning the climb; and
Fourth, the climb itself . . .
However, one wrong move could lead to disaster.
One should scale the remaining heights
Steadily and with care, and
One will reach the peak in due course.

WAY TO CLASS

From class to class we travel, Changing subjects and teachers each time the bell rings. The faces vary, and the experiences are different; but in each exchange we learn something new. Whether it be about History or English, Chemistry or Trig., in every class we not only learn more about the particular subject being taught, we learn more about ourselves.

ACCOUNTING

Well, there we
all were having
a better time than we expected, and as a class
that's what mattered. Our Junior Prom came and went sa fast, but it was just a preview to our one and only senior year. The good times, that's all anyone cares ta remember, and this is only one of the many memaries that we have tucked away. People we couldn't even picture on a dance flaar were out there having the best time! We all seemed to drap our in-school images and really be aurselves. The lights, the atmasphere, and the music made the night,

but "we" made the melody — the class of

So now is the time we must make those decisions
Using all we've ever learned to help us on our way
Cautiously, we take a step into time and
Carefully we decide what we want, with each day
Everyone tries to find the point at which our Souls can have some peace
So our hearts can feel the contentment and
Inside our happiness will not cease.
Success, the one word we're told to strive for in life
An adventure that will decide our dreams
Jumping into matters, making those mistakes
Only to realize what it all means.
United we stand, divided we fall, always
Returning to reality Never giving up, struggling for all our hopes
Ending just the beginning — we are free
Yes, success is a journey . Kathy Norvo

A Special Friend

Coming to the United States has been a great experience for me. It is a very different country then Costa Rica. The people here have been very kind to me and very welcoming.

When I first decided to become an exchange student, I wasn't too sure of what to expect. I had heard a lot about the negative aspects of the United States, but upon coming, learned a lot about the positive side.

My memories of this trip will be very happy because I really enjoyed my stay here. It was very nice to meet you all, and I hope you remember that you have a friend in Costa Rica.

Many times people have said that our high school years are the best years of our lives — the time in which we have no real responsibilities, and the time that we are free from taking a major course of action. It is a period in which we can grow and not have to worry about what tomorrow will bring. Life doesn't have to be taken too seriously.

But are these the best of times? Have we already made our mark on history? Shouldn't we look forward to our futures? Finally we come to the end — the end of the beginning. We can now travel on that road that leads to our independence. Yes, we will make mistakes along the way, but we will also learn from them. Each and every one of us has the ability to make our dreams come true. Some dreams will meet limitations yet some will last a lifetime. The choice is ours. This is where freedom lies.

Memories of the "good times" will bring smiles to our faces, and memories of the "bad times" will bring out laughter in our hearts. Whatever pain we have felt in the past will become less severe and may even be forgotten. The tears may still fall from our eyes, but they will not come as often. We only want to recall the moments that made us happy.

Even though we will all go our separate ways, we share one thing in common — we are the class of '83. Our class has worked together and has partied together. We are a whole and time cannot take away what we do not want to let go. Ten and twenty years from now we will still be the class of '83.

The words, "Seniors, you are now graduated!" will ring in our ears forever. Our grand march is a picture we will not forget. It will be our own maroon and gold tassels hanging from our rear view mirrors. The day is and always will be meant for us. Yes, saying good-bye is always hard, but this one will remain special and the emotions will be difficult to hold back.

The time has come, seniors. We have to take the step one way or another. Our dreams no longer have to be tucked away. The chance is here, and the challenge is real. Now we can start to build our castles in the air . . .

IN MEMORIAM . . .

Look Back And Now Follow

"A life of dedication and hope.
A life of teaching and of giving.
A quiet spirit — but determined.
A shadow cast that is of the living.
A power of example and faith,
From the "Old School" train of thought.
Steadfast, caring and unselfish.
A real human being with values
He exemplified and taught.
He is gone now — and now means forever.
But his presence will always be felt amongst us all.
A presence that will glow with great promise.
A presence that will be there to answer the call.
So remember Dick for the good times and this promise.
Not for the great sadness that now appears.
Look back and now follow.
And remember how much he gave through the years."

Class Officers

Back: Eric McCarthy, Mr. Fuller. Frant: Jill Kelly, Maureen Blanchard, Ellyn Donovan.

The most active ond least heard obout activity is a position os a closs officer. They deol with all of the mojor needs ond interests of the school. Their concerns are os follows: fundraising, arrongements for entertainment, political concerns, dealing with the activities of the school, voicing the opinion of the school in generol (for instonce, supporting the Students Against Drunkdriving progrom) and worrying about all of the important issues thot involve the entire school. Our choices for class officers reflect our confidence in their ability to keep things running smoothly and they have outdone themselves in every respect.

A band of knights set out on a brave but foolhardy adventure to kill Tiamat (5-headed dragon). The first knight fell whilst stumbling on his own sword, followed closely behind by the second knight who caught his armour on the doorknob. The others were burned by the dragon's acid breath. Hence, ergo the reason for the absence of the valiant members of this team.

As seniors we prepare to leave familiar surroundings and enter into the world as adults. We leave behind the joy and the laughter as well as the sorrows and pain that we felt during the time of our education. Soon high school will be nothing more than a faded memory. Our yearbook will give us a clearer image of what high school was, especially life as a senior. We can remember forever, through the pages of the yearbook, just what it meant to spend three years at Weymouth North High School — the sports, the clubs, the activities, the school spirit as well as all other aspects of high school life. Without the dedication and enthusiasm of the yearbook staff, none of this would have been possible. Long hours of hard work resulted in a finished product of which we can be proud. Captured in these pages is the essence of high school and its people. Forever cherish this book as a link to the past — a memory of the people who were our family and the school which was our home for three years of our life.

Patty, Linda, Jeanne and Irma enjoy their work.

This year's football team ended their season with one of the best records in recent years. This was North's first year in the Old Colony League. Although more success was expected, the team played very competitively in every game.

The maroon defense was the strength of the squad. Fine defensive efforts were made by John Powell, Tim Chaisson, Dan Needham, Gary Gosselin, Joe Ganley and Dave Sudby. Though the offense was somewhat inconsistant, it had an exceptional running attack led by Ken Padula and Mike Waithe. Quarterback Mike Brown was ably assisted by linesmen Mike Rober and Steve Masison. Also contributing to North's achievements were Tom Clark, Leo Melanson and Bruce Melgard.

North was well represented in this year's Old Colony League All-Star game by Bill, Scott, Kevin and Jim. Frank Durant was the #1 goaltender in the league. The highlight of the season was the team's advancement into the state tourney, a first for Weymouth North soccer.

GIRLS SOCCER

The girls soccer team had a super season tieing for second place in the Old Colony League. Although they didn't qualify for the tournament the girls played extremely well. With a record of 8-5-4, the team was led by Coach Hayes and captains Kathy West, Casey Balzano, Patty Turner and Amy Jackson. Amy Jackson, Mary Mathewson and Andrea Maimaron were first team all-starts, and Kelly O'Brien and Jodi Foy were honorable mention. Senior Amy Jackson was outstanding player in the league and a Globe All Scholastic. The J.V. team was undefeated, and the Freshman team displayed a lot of talent. Next year's team should be great!

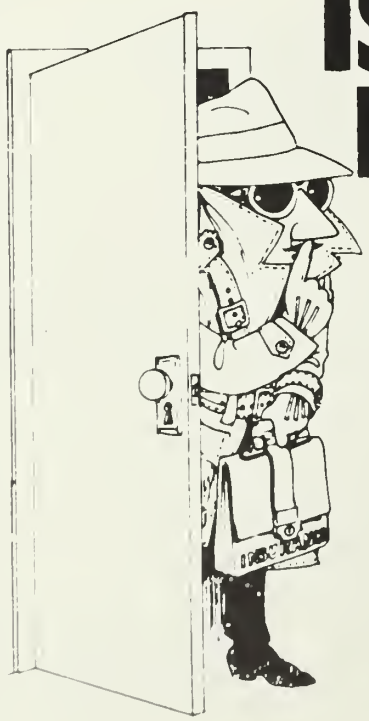
E. C. FOWLER INSURANCE AGENCY, INC.
1310 COMMERCIAL STREET
EAST WEYMOUTH, MASSACHUSETTS 02189



IS YOUR INSURANCE MAN A SECRET AGENT?

You know what we mean. A guy you hardly know. A guy who works for a cold, impersonal outfit in some faraway city

How could you know him? He doesn't have time to visit his clients (which is rather mysterious considering he never seems to be in his office when you have a claim). That's a secret agent.

But when your agent is one of the Big "I" Guys, you do know him and he knows you. Because instead of bieng "like a good neighbor," he is your neighbor-living and working right in our town.

He doesn't work for a company. He works for you. He helps you choose the right policy from the right company at the right price. And he's always available with answers, advice and service on your claims.

So if you're tired of doing business with a secret agent, get to know the Big "I" Guys at your local Independent Insurance Agency.
